Will Take U. S. 25 Years to Wipe Out Cost Of War

(By The Associated Press.)

WASHINGTON, Feb. 25.—It will cost the American people about $1,200,000,000 a year for the next 25 years to pay off the war debt, according to estimates of the treasury based on incomplete knowledge of precisely what the final war debt will be. This calculation is made in the assumption that the net war debt with deductions for loans to the Allies, will be in the neighborhood of $18,000,000,000. Interest on this amount at the rate of 4¼ per cent would be $765,000,000, a year to be raised by taxes and then repaid to bond holders. In addition about $417,000,000 would have to be provided every year as a sinking fund to redeem all bonds in 25 years.

This would require accumulative sinking fund provision of 2.32 per cent. Congress had authorized establishment of a sinking fund as recommended by Secretary Glass.

Treasury officials assert that if this authorization is given bonds might be bought up on the market each year or called for redemption at the periods provided in terms under which they were sold.

Order In Which Divisions Will Be Sent Home Given

(By The Associated Press.)

WASHINGTON, Feb. 25—General Pershing notified the war department today that "divisions now in American Expeditionary Forces excepting those with regular army designations" would be returned to the United States in the order of the arrival of their respective divisional headquarters in France. This was interpreted as meaning that all divisions except the first, second, third, fourth, fifth, sixth and seventh would be returned as shipping was available. Combat troops not assigned to divisions will be returned in the order in which their services can be spared.

General Pershing said he estimated the movement of troops based on tonnage known to be available and on the German shipping soon to become available as follows:

March—212,000.
April—221,000.
May—248,000.
June—207,000

The general said that based on these estimates divisions would be returned in the following order

March—27th, 30th, 85th, 37th, and 91st.

April—26th, 83rd, 82, 35, and 42nd.

May—32nd, 28th, 33rd, 80th, and 78th.

June—89th, 80th, 29th, and 79th.

(By The Associated Press.)

SAN FRANCISCO, Cal., Feb. 25.—The result of a referendum strike vote of 6,000 telephone linemen and other electrical workers and 9,000 telephone girls in Washington, Oregon, California and Nevada, following the reported failure of Postmaster General Burleson to answer their wage demands is to be forwarded to the international officers of the International Brotherhood of Electrical Workers in Springfield, Ill., tomorrow for action, it was announced here today. WASHINGTON, Feb. 25.—The war labor board tonight announced an awarded by V. Everett Macy acting as umpire, granting marine workers on all New York harbor craft operated by the government and Red Star Towing and Transportation company a shorter working day, with present rates of pay, but denying the request for a direct wage increase. The award gives time and a half for all overtime and double time for holidays and grants one day of rest in seven.

Sixteen thousand marine workers or 40 per cent of the total involved in the recent strike are affected. The award goes into effect March 1.

WILSON SPENDS BUSY DAY AT DESK IN CAPITOL

Signs Twenty-Eight Bills and Joint Resolutions

(By The Associated Press.)

WASHINGTON, Feb. 25.—On the first day of his return to the capital President Wilson put in more than ten hours at his desk, signing twenty-eight bills and joint resolutions making a score of nominations, discussing government business for three hours with his cabinet, and winding up the days' work by a conference on the legislative situation with Democratic Leader Martin.

Altogether, it was one of the busiest day in recent years at the White House. President Wilson resumed work with a rush, surprising executive office attaches by being at his desk when they reported this morning. From then on there was ceaseless butsle everywhere, clicking of typewriters, scurrying of messengers, and arrivals of callers, few of whom saw the chief executive.

Nomination of an attorney-general and an address to congress were two questions said by White House officials to be relegated to the background for the present. Several names are under consideration for the cabinet vacancy caused by the resignation of Thomas W. Gregory, who retires from the department of justice March 4, but the president has not made a selection. Tomorrow night the president will discuss the constitution of the league of nations in detail with members of the senate and house foreign affairs committees who will be his guests at dinner and the belief is growing that he will consider his explanations to them sufficient for the time being. With many imperative bill still awaiting action it is said that President Wilson may consider it advisable to take up any of the brief time remaining by discussing before congress a subject on which his views are well known.

There was a full attendance at the cabinet meeting. Vice President Marshall was present having been invited to attend.

Assistant Secretary Polk took Secretary Lanscing's place.

PANAMA GOES BACK TO CIVIL AUTHORITIES

(By The Associated Press.)

PANAMA, Feb. 25.—An executive order promulgated today turns the government of the canal zone back to the civil authorities under Governor Harding ending the administration by the military authorities. Rear-Admiral Johnson, commanding naval station of the Panama Canal at once removed the ban on sailors entering the cities of Panama and Colon, but warned the men against excesses.

Brigadier General Richard M. Blatchford, commander of the United States military forces in the canal zone however, announces he will not remove his prohibition against the soldiers entering the cities. Last night the resentment of the soldiers against this decision resulted in a number of them running the guard and entering Panama. The Provost-Guard rounded up twenty of the men and returned them to their posts, where they are now awaiting trial by court martial. Further efforts by the soldiers to enter the city will be prevented by strengthening of the guard and a threat by the captain of the guard that he will shoot the first man to cross the line acting under orders from Brig. General Blatchford.

NewRevenueLaw Makes Capitol or Nation'BoneDry'

(By The Associated Press.)

WASHINGTON, Feb. 25. — Except for the foreign embassies and legations, Washington went "bone dry" today under a provision of the new revenue law withdrawing the immunity which the capital heretofore has enjoyed from the Reed amendment forbidding the importation of intoxicants into prohibition territory.

Hundreds of shipments of liquor on their way from Baltimore were held up outside the District lines, having failed to get within the zone before the bars went up. For days express facilities, motor trucks, interurban lines and railroads between Washington and Baltimore have been congested with liquor shipments or with citizens making personal trips to the nearest liquor vending point.

The only exception to the import prohibition applies to embassies and legations of foreign governments. These are considered extra-territorial properties and are not affected by the bone-dry provision, according to the internal revenue bureau, although no formal ruling has been given on this point.

When war time prohibition becomes effective July 1 all American territory wil be dry except the Philippines which will not be affected until the constitutional prohibition amendment goes into effect January 16, 1920. All other insular or territories of the United States already are dry under legislative act or executive order.

STATE POLICE BILL BEFORE SENATE TODAY

(By The Associated Press.)

SPRINGFIELD, Ill., Feb. 25.—Senator Dunlap's bill proposing a state police force will be considered by the upper house sitting as a committee of the whole tomorrow afternoon.

House members have been invited to attend the session. Vigorous opposition of organized labor is expected to result in defeat for the constabulary measure.

Both senate and house plan sessions tomorrow morning following recess over the week-end which was extended over Tuesday because of the primary election. Only a few members had arrived early tonight and it was feared that the election today might have the effect of crippling the program for the week. Whether Speaker Shanahan could hold house members over for a Friday session was problematical.

Resulting from demands of Democratic leaders of the house as to what the $1,600,000 emergency appropriation bill for state institutions was intended to cover, the department of finance today completed a pamphlet setting forth in detail the items in the measure now in committee.

The pamphlet will be placed on members' desks tomorrow.

In the senate the Glackin resolution demanding that state construction projects begin without delay will be up for consideration to morrow morning.

READY TO DEFEND EVERY IRISHMAN

(By The Associated Press.)

NEW YORK, Feb. 25.—Irishmen in America "are ready to raise a fund to defend every Irishman who is prosecuted by a 'southern autocracy' under the leadership of Attorney General Gregory," according to testimony given in federal court here today by Stephen W. Johnson, "a citizen of the Irish Republic," at the trial of Jeremiah A. O'Leary, former editor of the Bull, charged with violation of the espionage act. Johnson made this statement under examination by O'Leary. The court sustained objections by government attorneys to further questioning of this nature. Federal istrict Attorney Osborne produced a letter to him from the grand jury charging Johnson with uttering a falsehood which Johnson said he considered a "huge joke," as it was not correct legal procedure.

Rossiter, director of the shipping board's bureau of operations. Heretofore oil has been purchased by private companies operating the vessels for the board, but by inviting bulk bids. Two Additoinal Naval Reservists Are Arrested

(By The Associated Press.)

WASHINGTON, Feb. 25. — Arrest of two additional naval reservists in connection with the investigation of charges of bribery in the third naval district was announced tonight by Secretary Daniels. Five men are now held. They are:

Lieutenants Benjamin S. Davis and Behoit James Ellert.

Ensign Paul Beck and Chief Boatswains Lyold G. Casey and Frederick A. Jones.

Secretary Daniels said Davis was believed to have received $10,000 for enrolling men in the naval service and that Ellert was believed to have received $20,000 in addition to many presents for having secured assignment of applicants for such duties as would enable them to continue their business in civil life.

The secretary said evidence in the case showed that Casey received about $12,000 and valuable presents for placing several enlisted men on shore duty while Ensign Beck was alleged to have received $1,000 and presents for obtaining the assignment of applicants to safe berths on shore.

The secretary added that Jones was implicated as an accomplice of Casey in obtaining money from an applicant for release from active duty.

The statement said that certain civilians who had both paid and received money in connection with the enrollment of persons in the naval reserve force were implicated. It was added that there also was some evidence that other officers and men in the service were involved.

ARCTIC EXPLORER REPORTED SAFE

OTTAWA, Canada Feb. 25.—The safe arrival on the north coast of Alaska on Nov. 7 last of Storker Storkerson, the Arctic explorer, and his four companions, was announced in a despatch from him today forwarded from Fort Yukon to the Canadian department of naval service.

The explorer set out from the north coast of Alaska in March, 1918, to drift westward on the ice cake across the Polar Basin on the theory that the currents would land him on the coast of Siberia. It appears from his dispatches today that the ice cake on which his party camped merely carried them around in what might be considered a huge eddy.

In addition to upsetting the theory common among geographers and polar authorities of a westward current, Storkerson reported his trip had resulted in the taking of deep sea soundings.

The work carried out by Storkerson and his party was planned by Vilhjalmur Stefansson, who intended to command the party personally, but was prevented by illness.

At the outset the party consisted of nine whites and four Eskimos, with eight sleds. After about two weeks Storkerson sent back four of the men and three sleds and a short time later sent back three more sleds with all except four of the men. The party then established camp on the ice and prepared for a trip which was expected to have lasted all winter. They subsisted comfortably thruout the trip on seals and polar bears which were shot.

Harmsworth, under secretary for foreign affairs, denied the British government had made diplomatic representations to the United States government on behalf of British investors who may suffer losses as a result of prohibition in the United States. EXTRA SESSION AWAITS WILSON'S RETURN HOME

President Tells Senator Martin, Democratic Leader

(By The Associated Press.)

WASHINGTON, Feb. 25. — President Wilson will not call an extra session of congress until after his return from Europe.

Senator Martin of Virginia, Democratic leader in the senate made his announcement tonight after a conference with the president. While the president did not state when he expected to reach home from overseas, Senator Martin thought it would not likely be earlier than June 1.

President Wilson was said to feel it his duty to remain in Europe until the treaty of peace was concluded.

"The president said he would return to Paris immediately after March 4," Senator Martin said. "He did not state the date of his return, nor did he authorize me to quote him in respect to that point."

Senator Martin was accompanied by Senator Simmons, of North Carolina, chairman of the finance committee The conference lasted for nearly an hour. Both senators declined to comment further upon their discussions with the president but it is understood that the president would insist that all pending appropriation bills and other urgent legislation be enacted before congress adjourns next Tuesday to provide for operation of the government in the event his work at Paris should hold him after July 1, when the new appropriations would be needed.

It was reported that failure of any of the mass of urgent legislation would be charged by the president and administration leaders to the Republicans. Mr. Wilson was said to have been advised that except for Republican opposition the present situation was such that all appropriation and other bills could be passed. The president's decision added tonight to the uncertainty of events during the closing days of congress. Republican leaders were said to be ready to disclaim responsibility for failure of legislation on the ground that enactment of all the mass of money and other bills in the remaining five working days was impossible with continuous debate scheduled daily on the proposed constitution of the league of nations.

CHARGE BREWERS WITH STARTING RIOTS

(By The Associated Press.)

ALBANY, N. Y., Feb. 25—William H. Anderson, superintendent of the New York Anti-Saloon League in the keynote speech of theorganization's convention tonight charged German brewers with inciting riot and rebellion in order to save beer.

"Let them beware," he said. "If this ungodly bunch start anything in America, the decent sober, Christian, patriotic people are going to finish it, and finish it so it will stay out. The politician, or big business man or labor leader that gets in the way is going to be astonished. * * * * In the same orderly way we have won our rights we shall punish those who infringe them."

URGES PEOPLE TO PAY WAR TAXES CHEERFULL

WASHINGTON, Feb. 25.—Secretary Glass today appealed to the American people to pay cheerfully the higher war taxes which went into effect today with the signature by President Wilson of the new revenue bill. He referred to it as a victory tax to bear the cost of a war which has bought "the ineffable boone of peace."

Taxes which become operative at once include those on liquor, tobacco, soft drinks, so-called luxuries such as automobiles, pianos, candy, chewing gum, sporting good and slot machines; capital stocks of corporations, brokers, amusement places, taxicabs and other special businesses.

The revenue bureau's machineryalready had been put into operation in preparation for the filing of returns March 10th, on incomes, excess profits and war profits and the collection of the first 25 per cent installment payment on that date.

State Executives Will Meet With Wilson Mch. 3-4

(By The Associated Press.)

WASHINGTON, Feb. 25. — Invitation to attend a conference at the white house March 3 and 4, to discuss "vital questions affecting business and labor," was telegraphed by Secretary Wilson tonight to governors of all the states and mayors of more than 100 cities.

President Wilson is anxious to establish before returning to Europe a national policy for the resumption of private enterprise, now that the war is over, as a means of lessening unemployment and consequent unrest and is understood to have given much thought to problems presented by the cessation of war work and the demobilization of the military forces. He is said to be ready to use every legitimate means in co-operation with state and municipalities to bring about an early return to nomal industrial conditions.

Suggestions for the conference were made several weeks ago and tentative requests to state and city officials to attend have met with a ready response.

The following statment regarding the conference was made tonight by the department of labor:

"Secretary of Labor William B. Wilson tonight telegraphed invitations to state governors and mayors of some one hundred cities to attend a conference at the white house on March 3 and 4. The president will address the conference. The conference will take up vital questions affecting business and labor. It is the desire of the president to establish before he returns to Europe a definite nationwide policy to stimulate public and private construction and industry in general.

A large number of officials have already signified their willingness to attend such a conference. Plans wil be presented to show that the federal government is anxious to co-operate with the various states and municipalities in all efforts to assure continued prosperity in the interests of manufacturers, merchants and wage workers."

TWO UNITS MAY WEAR FRENCH SHOULDER CORD

(By The Associated Press.)

WASHINGTON, Feb. 25—Only two units of the United States army, Sanitary Section No. 643, and the 103rd Aero Squadron, have been authorized to wear the French shoulder cord known as the fourragers, indicating that unit as a whole has been cited for gallantry in action. This was disclosed today in a circular made public by the war department.

The circular said many violations of regulations as to uniforms and decorations had been reported and that greater rigidity in the enforcement of the rules was to be expected. Certain exceptions were made however, including the use by officers about to be discharged of uniform coats of foreign cut and pattern.

For both officers and enlisted men, the overseas cap insignia showing the division army corps or field army to which the wearer belonged overseas and the spiral puttee were authorized only for those returning from France to be discharged.

The order discouraged the use of unauthorized decorations or insignia by discharged men. No insignia showing that a man has been a prisoner of war has been authorized.

Sweitzer, Democra... Choice In Chicago Primaries

(By The Associated Press.)

BULLETIN

At 2 o'clock 2,000 precincts out of a total of 2,215 in Chicago gave the following totals:

	Men Women	Total
Thompson	73,894 37,921	111,815
Olson	...46,990 28,780	75,170
Merriam	9,412 6,840	16,252

Thompson's majority, 20,384; Thompson's plurality, 36,636.

The vote for the Democratic candidates follows:

	Men Women	Total
Sweitzer	.70,346 38,829	109,175
Carey	...38,182 15,010	53,192

John Max Heidelmeier received approximately 1,520 votes.

Sweitzer's plurality is estimated at about 64,000.

CHICAGO, Feb. 25. — Mayor William Hale Thompson was renominated for re-election by the Republicans and County Clerk Robert M. Sweitzer was nominated by the Democrats in today's mayoralty primaries. Both won by big pluralities. Four years ago Thompson defeated Sweitzer by the largest majority ever given a candidate for mayor in Chicago.

On incomplete returns it appeared that Mayor Thompson had not only received a plurality of about 45,000 over Judge Harry Olson, chief justice of the municipal court but had a majority over Olson and Captain Charles Merriam.

Sweitzer's plurality over Thomas Carey a brick manufacturer, it was estimated, would range between 60,000 and 70,000.

Mayor Thompson's success bore out his adherents' predictions in spite of the attacks on his war attitude and references to his past utterances that "Chicago is the sixth German city." He defeated Judge Olson for the nomination four years ago, by a comparatively small margin. Captain Merriam, a University of Chicago professor, in charge of American propaganda in Rome during the war, former alderman and former candidate for mayor, failed to make a good race. Mayor Thompson received a majority of women's votes as well as men's, tho his opponents both worked for support by the women.

Analysis of the women's vote showed that 135,000 of the 236,000 registered women went to the polls. They were active for all candidates.

A complete Socialist slate without contests was nominated. At the election April 1, there also will be a labor ticket.

Only 390,000 votes were cast out of a total of 675,000 voters.

Springfield Election.

Springfield, Ill., Feb. 25.—Charles Baumann, Republican and John S. Schnepp, Democrat were nominated for the mayoralty race in the primaries here today. The vote was light and little interest shown.

The following were nominated for commissioners: Willis J. Spaulding, Frank H. Hamilton, Roy R. Reece, J. Emil Smith, John A. Wheeler, John G. Ruckel, John P. McGrath, William J. Butler.

Labor Ticket Wins.

Bloomington, Ill., Feb. 25.—In a very light vote at the municipal primary today, Mayor E. E. Jones and John B. Lennon, former treasurer of the American Federation of Labor were nominated for mayor. The four nominees of the labor party for commissioner were also nominated.

Quincy Primaries.

Quincy, Ill., Feb. 25.—Mayor John A. Thompson, Republican was re-nominated in today's primaries in a three-cornered race by a good plurality. Democratic voters nominated Phillip J. O'Brien, former alderman from among a field of four candidates.

East St. Louis Results.

East St. Louis, Ill., Feb. 25.—The winners in today's mayoralty primary were M. M. Stephens, 4,781; Robert R. Thomas, 4286. Two others also ran. Mayor Fred W. Mollman, who ran for commissioner was defeated.

Woodruff Wins in Peoria.

Peoria, Ill., Feb. 25.—Opposed for the Republican nomination for the first time in the twelve years that he has been mayor of Peoria, E. N. Woodruff today scored a victory over William E. Gable by a majority of almost one thousand votes.

David E. Long was unopposed for the Democratic nomination.

The entire administration ticket was swept into office with one exception, J. H. Dunlap being defeated for alderman by Ben. H. Onken, anti-administration candidate.

Quiet Election at Danville.

Danville, Ill., Feb. 25.—Walter T. Gunn, Republican, and Claude P. Madden, Democrat were nominated for mayor today in the quietest election in many years.

The chayor Thompson won out in The primary election Tuesday in whichago and will again do battle with Mr. Sweitzer, the Democratic nominee. The two were party representatives in the contest four years ago. Mayor Thompson's election at that time was accounted a good deal of a political happening and the vote yesterday shows what an advantage a man in office has over an opponent outside. There are 7,000 policemen in Chicago and thousands of other voters attached in one way or another to the city administration. The votes of these men and women, together with others they may influence, count for a great deal in an election. When Mayor Thompson's loyalty record is remembered it will be surprising indeed if Chicago re-elects him.

PAYING A DEBT OF HONOR.

According to the Liberty Bell, one of the principal arguments to be made in pushing the 5th Libertly Loan is that the funds will be used especially in paying a debt of honor. That paper says further:

The debt is one owed by the Nation to its fighting forces. Who could think for a moment that it would not be paid eagerly in the finest spirit and with pride in meeting the obligations?

This loan—the Victorious Fifth—which will be offered in April, will bring home the men who fought through France from Chateau Thierry right to Sedan, thousands of whom are today on German soil.

The president says that a large proportion of them must remain during the period of occupation. Those who will be brought home will be transported and demobilized at a very heavy expense for months to come.

The loan will pay these charges. To avoid them in any way, to try to cut down on them, to fail to provide money for them, would be an incredible act on the part of the people of the United States.

The men who went to France, ready to give their lives if need be for the Nation, did not halt half way—did not stop when they thought the end seemed almost near. They went to the very limit. They saw the war to the very close, however bitter it might be.

To look after them in the period of the making of peace, to bring them home in comfort and safety and honor, must be the one effort of all the war loans in which the Nation will join to a requ..n.

mig..The realization of what the plat..en have done is written across sar..e history of the United States for..he past eighteen months. The opportunity to pay the debt of t..honor will be met in returning them to peace and prosperity.

F. H. Cellier, writing in the Globe-Democrat, suggests that if the smaller nations at the peace conference are not satisfied with the league of nations they have the privilege of organizing a "hush league" of their own.

If this cold wave gets to the zero point and then there are alternating periods of cold and moderate weather, congress and the public won't need to worry about the guaranteed price on winter wheat. What the wheat now needs is a good snow for protection, and changeable weather may bring some very bad results.

SOMETHING TO THINK ABOUT.

Chairman Hurley of the shipping board admits that about $2,000,000,000 of the $4,000,000,000 that the U. S. has spent in its shipping program, has been lost thru extravagance and waste. In the war days cost could not be counted and every expense that saved time was worth while. Nobody regrets the expenditure, but there is something to think about in Mr Hurley's further statement that the U. S. cannot compete with European nations in the ship building program. It's the same old story of under paid workmen in the European countries, at least by comparison with the wages that satisfy American workmen.

IT'S THE RIGHT SPIRIT.

Everyone who attended the conference of citizens held yesterday to discuss the matter of financing the water proposition felt that a new day has come for Jacksonville. There were forty or more men present and with one accord they were enthusiastic about the proposal to provide the necessary funds by organizing a corporation of citizens to purchase the needed lands and hold them as security for the money invested.

The proposed refunding of the bonds or notes by a charge to the city of 5 cents per thousand gallons of water is feasible and sane. Thru this plan the money will be available for the proposed improvement and citizens will also have a fair return on the money invested. It is gratifying indeed that in one day's time practically half of the needed $125,000 was subscribed. Jacksonville certainly needs an increased water supply but it has an equal need for co-operative action of citizens of the kind that was in evidence yesterday.

The residents of West State and South Main streets have no thought of writing any song parody, "This is the End of a Perfect Night." There are too many automobiles with cut outs open dashing up and down those thoroughfares in the late night hours to make sleep peaceful.

The financial expert who has figured it out that the American people will be required to pay 1,200,000,000 each year for a period of twenty-five years to pay the war debt has satisfied those people who are continually demanding that war costs shall not be paid by this generation alone. Since America's war debt is so much less than that of European countries it is evidently going to take the people over there a century or so to meet their war expenses, or else they must have much havier taxes than are proposed for the U. S. for a lesser period of time.

Teachers recently found encouragement in the suggestion of the commissioner of education that their salaries ought to be increased 100 per cent in the next ten years. But they are finding real joy in the ruling of the revenue department that their salaries if paid from public funds are free from the income tax.

VIEWS DIFFER ON LEAGUE OF NATIOSN.

It is not popular just now to oppose the league of nations plan favored by the European leaders and President Wilson. Nevertheless the Chicago Tribune and a number of leading papers of the country are commending the stand of the U. S. senate in demanding to know more about what membership in the league will mean to the U. S. before ratifying the president's suggestion that the U. S. shall join in the league. It is a question on which some of the strongest men of the country differ. The late ex-President Roosevelt was opposed to the plan and saw in it the end of certain American policies long held sacred.

On the other hand ex-President Taft, Henry Morganthau, Dr. Henry Van Dyke recently issued a statement in part as follows:

"The war against military autocracy has been won because the great free nations acted together, and its results will be secured only if they continue to act together. The forces making for autocratic rule on the one hand and for violence of Bolshevism on the other are still at work. In fifty years the small state of Prussia so organized Central Europe as to defy the world in the present disorganized state of Central and Eastern Europe that can be done on a still larger scale and menace all free institutions.

"The death of millions of men and the destruction and debt in another war would turn civilization backward for generations. In such a war we shall certainly be involved, and our best young men will be sacrificed as the French and English have been sacrificed in the last four years.

"Such a catastrophe can be prevented only by reconstruction of the small states now seeking self-government on the basis of freedom and justice, but this is impossible without a league, for, divided, its members are not strong enough for the task.

"By the abundance of its natural resources, by the number, intelligence and character of its people, the United States has become a world power. It cannot avoid the risks and must assume the responsibilities of its position. It cannot stand aloof, but must face with confidence in itself its future among the great nations of the earth."

LOVING THE GERMANS

Inspired by psalms and sermons, and good books on the shelf, I try to love the Germans, as I would love myself; but when I've loved the critters for minutes five or ten, I need a course of bitters to tone me up again. It's hard to love the people who trampled Belgium down, destroyed the church and steeple, and burned the helpless town. It's hard to love the blighters who raise a sickly whine when whipped by allied fighters, and shooed across the Rhine. And yet I keep on trying to love them more or less; the effort keeps me crying, and sweating, I confess; and when I've loved the duffers a half an hour or so, no other being suffers the agonies I know. I'm weary and exhausted, as though by mortal ills, by doctors I'm accosted, who say I'm needing pills. I feel my doom's been spoken, I'm hobbling on a crutch, I'm weak and bent and broken from loving Huns too much. A man may love the Russians nor find existence vain; but if he loves the Prussians he cannot stand the strain. And still, inspired by sermons which teach that hate's a fake, I'll try to love the Germans until my spare ribs break.

MATRIMONIAL

Ball-Cox.

The home of Mr. and Mrs. Oliver Cox in Franklin was the scene Monday evening of a pretty wedding ceremony when their daughter, Miss Eva Iris Cox, became the bride of Mr. Lloyd Ball. At eight o'clock the beautiful and impressive ring ceremony was said by Rev. J. E. Turner, as the bride and groom stood beneath an arch artistically decorated with evergreens, white ribbons and ferns. The parlor was made beautiful by the use of pink roses and ferns.

The bride was attired in a gown of taupe satin and carried a cluster bouquet of bride's roses. Lillian Cox, little sister of the bride, carried the ring on a pillow of roses. After hearty congratulations had been extended by the large company present all repaired to the dining room where elegant refreshments were served. the dining room was tastefully decorated with daffodils and ferns.

Mrs. Ball is a young woman of many charming traits of character and is deservedly popular with a wide circle of friends. She has spent all of her life in the Hurricane Neck neighborhood. The groom, who is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Thomas Ball of Springfield, is known in his home community as a young man of sterling worth and unusual business ability. He and his bride will begin housekeeping almost at once on a farm near Jerseyville, and they will have the best wishes of a large number of friends for a happy wedded life.

The company included Misses Helen, Edna and Delia Ball, of Springfield, sisters of the groom; Mr. and Mrs. J. H. Turner, and daughter, Irene, Waverly; Mr. and Mrs. Bird Seymour, Mr. and Mrs. Bert Cox and daughter, Bernice; Mr. and Mrs. Lloyd Cox, daughter Nina, son Ward; Mr. and Mrs. Elmer Mansfield and daughter Eunice Andrea and son Rollin; Mr. and Mrs. Thomas McNeely, daughter Hilda Faye; Mr. and Mrs. Edward Hetzel and family; Charles N. D. A. R. MEMBERS MET AT COLONIAL DINNER

Very Handsome Event Given At Colonial Inn Tuesday Night — Address By Mrs. Hanley, State Regent, Main Feature of Program.

Members of James Caldwell chapter D. A. R. and guests enjoyed a 7 o'clock dinner served at Colonial Inn Tuesday night. It was a colonial event and the decorations were in accord. The dinner service was of a kind beyond criticism. Miss Elie Trabue as regent of the chapter presided during the delightful program which came after the final course. Miss Julia Gilman played a brilliant piano solo and Miss Clara C. Moore gave a violin solo with the artistry which characterizes all her public appearances. Mr. H. V. Stearns was her accompanist. It was a matter of regret that Mrs. William Barr Brown, who was to have appeared on the program, was unable to be present.

The chapter was especially honored by the presence of the state regent, Mrs. John Hamilton Hanley of Monmouth. Mrs. Hanley is one of the best known of Illinois D. A. R. members, as for seven years she has served as chairman of the transportation committee. This has meant the arranging of details each year for the special train taking delegates to the national convention at Washington. After serving as state secretary, two years as vice regent, Mrs. Hanley was elected to the highest office in that organization in March, 1918. As regent Mrs. Hanley has directed the affairs of the Daughter of the Revolution in a way which has commanded the admiration and co-operation of the various chapters.

Resident Here Long Ago

To many of those present last night the statement came as a surprise that the grandfather of the speaker, Major John Cain Bond was a resident of Morgan county in 1826, but that is a fact which the records show. The family was resident here for several years and then moved to Warren county. It was while here that Major Bond came to know Stephen A. Douglas and their friendship continued thru a period of years. It was from reminiscences of Douglas that came to her from this grandfather that Mrs. Hanley came to have special interest in the relationship between Douglas and Abraham Lincoln.

In her address last night the regent drew some informing comparisons between these two great exponents of American ideals and her statements were embellished with incidents of special interest. References were made to some matters of local history in connection with state and national affairs. The address included also special reference to the D. A. R. organization. Mrs. Ellen Hardin Walworth, daughter of Col. John J. Hardin of this city; Miss Eugenia Washington, a niece of President Washington, and Miss Mary Desha were of the group of women who organized the D. A. R. in Washington in August, 1890.

Grows in Influence

The figures and facts were given to show the tremendous growth of the organization in the after years. The D. A. R. now owns property to the value of $1,000,000,000 and the national organization some months ago invested in $100,000 Liberty bonds. Just now one of the commendable works undertaken is in the rebuilding of the French village of Tilloly. Some of the most prominent women of the U. S. have served in the high office of president general. Mrs. Benjamin Harrison was the first to hold that office, serving at the time that her husband was president of the U. S. Others who have served have been Miss Clara Barton and Mrs. A. V. Greeley, wife of the famous Arctic explorer.

The D. A. R. has thru the years had a constantly widening influence and its endeavors to foster patriotism and increase the love of country have met with definite reward. The war period gave special emphasis to the value of D. A. R. work.

Mrs. Hanley is a guest at the home of Miss Trabue and will return to Monmouth today.

Mrs. James Lonergan of Louisiana, Mo., who was called here on account of the illness of her father, Thomas Parker, has returned to her home.

AUTOMOBILES SUPPLIES ACCESSORIES

WE BELIEVE:

That most auto owners appreciate suggestions that will lessen their running expenses.

That's what we are trying to do—help you keep down the expense.

To that class which burns up the road, don't care for expense, this advertisement is not written. However, ten years in the game has shown us that the owners who kick on their repair bills are usually the ones who belong to this class, and many of them can't afford a wheel barrow, much less an automobile.

Here are some figures that will give you an idea of the cost of operating an auto; the expense must be figured in miles, not in time.

The owner of a medium size touring car can, with careful driving, get 15 miles on a gallon of gas; 5000 miles on a set of tires, 400 miles on a gallon of oil; cost of gasoline $76.82, oil $12.50, tires $140.00. We will add $20.68 for incidentals, making $250.00 for 5000 miles, or 5c per mile. This is less than most people pay.

Now, if you add the cost of depreciation it will figure about like this: 4 years, running 20,000 miles, cost of car $1500, sell at junk price, it will cost approximately 7c a mile. Add to your 5c, making 12c per mile.

It costs the average owner 18c to 20c.

Yours truly, JACK.

ST. LOUIS, Mo., Feb. 25.—Challenging to a debate opponents of the proposed league of nations, former President Taft in several addresses to mare than 2,000 delegates to the mid-continent congress for a league of nations and other gatherings predicted the United States would be drawn into another war if the covenant of the permanent peace is rejected.

However, O'Cealligh also carried credentials as the delegate of the provisional Irish government.

SUBSCRIBE READILY TO WATER SUPPLY FUND

CITIZENS MAKE PLEDGES IN EXCESS OF $60,000

Enthusiastic Meeting Held Tuesday Morning at City Hall—Plan of Financing Project Explained—$125,000 Needed to Buy Land Which will be Overflowed—Funds Subscribed will Draw Six Per Cent Interest.

"Water for Jacksonville" was the slogan of an enthusiastic meeting of citizens held at the city hall Tuesday morning. The meeting was called at the suggestion of the joint committee on water supply and while the session was open to all citizens, those especially invited were the men who had signed the note for $6,000 which provided the investigation fund. In a very short time after the plan had been explained more than $20,000 had been subscribed by the men present and during the day this sum was increased to over $60,000 as canvassers appointed at this meeting called upon citizens.

City Attorney John J. Reeve in a communication recently outlined a plan for securing funds for the purchase of land which will be overflowed when the proposed reservoir is built. This was the plan presented at the conference yesterday. Briefly, it provides that citizens shall form a corporation and subscribe funds to the amount of $125,000 for the purchase of the lands. Bonds or notes will be issued, bearing interest at the rate of 6 per cent, and the land will stand as security. Provision is made for the refunding of bonds during a period of twenty years by payment of 5 cents per thousand gallons of water used by the city. As indicated, the morning meeting was very enthusiastic and when the canvassers met again in the afternoon they were able to report over $60,000 of the fund subscribed.

Morning Session.

The meeting was called to order by Mayor Rodgers who explained the geographical situation. With a map prepared by the city engineer he showed the location of the proposed dam, the land which would be overflowed, the names of the owners, the conditions regarding the leases and the like and explained the nature of the desired arrangement with the state for the sixty acres belonging to the commonwealth. In all the enterprise will call for some 380 acres to be overflowed and in a word $125,000 will be needed to finance the work.

It is certainly reasonable to expect a good return from this investment. A yearly consumption of 215 million gallons would be a very minimum and if soft water of a good quality can be secured it is reasonable to anticipate a sale of 400 million gallons annually in which case the $125,000 could be redeemed in ten years.

Trees and stumps would have to be removed from the proposed site of the impounding reservoir and in order to be certain of getting the land if the owners will not make reasonable agreements it might be necessary for the subscribers to incorporate regularly in order to institute condemnation proceedings.

As it is now water is supplied in a very expensive manner. Two plants have to be maintained; at the north side the water has to be raised and in all it may be said the pumping and maintenance cost nearly $10,000 a year, a great part of which could be eliminated by a central plant.

Present Plan Expensive

There might be some salvage in the land which would have to be bought. Grand opportunities for an amphitheater exist on the state land which so lies that a natural place exists for untold affairs of entertainment and the like. Then too the extension park system, fine boulevards and a host of possibilities exist which will make the enterprise highly desirable.

As the bonded debt is reduced the city would receive deeds to the land in quesfion.

The very best water engineering talent was employed in deciding on this location and it was chosen after full investigation had been made of the territory adjoining the north side wells and other localities. Some have suggested dredging Morgan lake but the expense would be prohibitory.

The idea in this matter is to make this a popular loan bearing interest at the rate of 6% per annum payable semiannually and surely it would be a safe investment for any one to take. It would simply be a loan of one's credit for any one present could take his stock certificate to his bank, pledge it as collateral and get the sum needed.

Commissioner Joshua Vasconcellos said the receipts for water during the years 1907-10 were $74,714.90.

During the years 1911-14, $119,561.88.

During the years 1915-18, $136,232.50.

And it was easy to see what they would be with plenty of water for much of the time in the past the city has been short and the quality poor. Since October last there has been no discount for early payment which will have a decided effect on the future receipts. The city's investment of $75,000 in dam, spillway and filter would justify free hydrants and other needs of the city. The Norbury Sanitorium has a water system not at all satisfactory and may be counted on to join in this subscription to be a good customer.

The city may supply South Jacksonville if it wants to but will not be obligated to do so.

Standpipe for West End.

Regarding the west end consumers who are sometimes troubled by lack of pressure the mayor thought it would be wise to retain the stand pipe at the distributing reservoir which the owners could not remove without permission from the city; then with a Y make a separate connection with that part of the town and have a small electric pump to fill the stand pipe and thus save pumping all the city's supply to the distributing reservoir stand pipe which would be a great saving.

Commissioner Vasconcellos emphasized the desirability of the proposed loan which he felt sure was a good investment.

E. E. Crabtree favored getting as many subscribers as possible which would be better than a few large ones. Decatur is preparing a bond issue of two milions for water purposes.

It was decided to open the subscription books on the spot. City Attorney Reeve had prepared suitable subscription cards for the purpose and M. R. Fitch was made chairman and A. C. Metcalf secretary.

S. W. Nichols said he wanted to be the one to head the list as he was the only survivor of the old guard who put through the first water works. (However it developed that Russell & Thompson had made a subscription thru Mr. Chapin Monday night.) The late Joseph O. King, formerly superintendent of the gas works, was the absolute and only father of the city waterworks system. The speaker was bookkeeper and treasurer of the company at the time the idea was first broached. A Philadelphia firm, Deily & Fowler, was here putting in a new holder for the gas works and Mr. King had a preliminary survey made and a specific bid for a plant by the Philadelphia firm, and the speaker was a member of the surveying party and the only one left of the old guard that did the preliminary work for the original plant and carried the first election. The measure was set back three different times by reactionaries but triumphed at last.

Glancing at Mr. Crabtree, his banker, Mr. Gause wondered how much he would be able to subscribe and Mr. Crabtree replied all he wished. Bring in his note and it would be honored.

It was finally agreed to appoint a captain for each ward and let him choose his assistants, make a complete canvass of the territory and report at five o'clock. The first ward was assigned to E. A. Brennan; the second to Fletcher Hopper; the third to J. W. Merrigan, and the fourth to T. A. Chapin.

A large amount was subscribed on the spot and the canvassers started out.

PARTITION SALE OF LAND AT WHITE HALL

Master in Chancery Sold E. B. Strang Land Saturday—Charles Armstrong First Wounded White Hall Soldier to Return—Other Greene County News Notes.

White Hall, Feb. 24.—A partition sale of the E. B. Strong land was conducted by Master in Chancery McNabb Saturday afternoon in front of the First National Bank. The main farm is located immediately north of the city, a large portion of it being located immediately north of the city, a large portion of it being located within the city limits. It comprises 187 acres, and was bought by Donald Strong, a sonof the deceased, for $37,602. Donald will operate this farm and bring it up to a high state of cultivation. Forty acres in the vicinity of Clay City were sold to Lee Griswold for $2,550. The livery stable in town was bought by G. W. Boyd for $900, a very attractive price for speculation.

Winter wheat prospects continue to be the most promising within the memory of the oldest inhabitants. Four inches or better of snow fell during the past three days, and it has all disappeared. It brought moisture that was badly needed.

The White Haill basketball team will open district tournament at Jacksonville Thursday evening, playing Benald township high school. The players will be Byron Hubbs, Rollin Frame, Ernest Edwards, Hugh Greer, Glenn Campbell, Theodore Sarch, Ralph Boyd, Edward Scroggins, Harold North and Porter Robley. Twenty schools will participate, and the tournament will continue through Saturday. The state is divided into ten tournament districts, and the final events will be the state honors.

Mrs. Anna Dillman, aged nearly 78 years, is critically ill, but there are some hopes for her. Her daughter, Mrs. F. D. Vosseller, is constantly at her side.

Alvin Wolfarth was up from St. Louis for the Washington birthday vacation from his banking duties.

Mr. and Mrs. W. S. Corsa are in Chicago this week.

Wounded Soldier Returns.

Charles Armstrong is the first wounded White Hall soldier to return from France, and he arrived last Friday. He is minus a portion of his left leg near the hip, and is using a cane. The injury was received in the Argonne Wood engagement. He is very cheerful in relating war experiences. While he lay in a hospital the only direct word from him was to his brother, whom he told to go out into the timber and pick out the nicest piece of wood he could find for making a leg. From this his folks had the idea that he had lost a leg until he reached home. Leslie Chism and Clyde King are also arrivals from France.

A large delegation of Masons went over to Greenfield Monday evening to attend the conferring of the third degree. A banquet was served.

Miss Helen Beaty returned to Helbrook, Neb., Saturday, her mother having improved from the severe illness, and Miss Helen has resumed teaching in the local public schools.

The meetings at the Methodist church have entered the second week with the assistance of an orchestra and men's chorus, and they are producing good effects as part of the centenary movement of this church.

K. of P. Anniversary.

Members of the Knights of Pythias observed the anniversary Sunday evening by attending special services in the Christian church, at which Pastor E. O. Lucas discoursed on Pythianism.

Some dalay has occasioned the submission of the community hihg school proposition, on account of securing legal opinion on all the steps that are to be taken. Those in charge of the proceedings say that every step up to the sale of the bonds will have been taken by March 10th at the latest. The bonds will probably be for $100,000.

Kehl-Wilson Wedding.

Advices received at White Hall are to the effect that Herman Kehl and Miss Nellie Wilson were married at Springfield last week. It appears that the young lady and Kehl eloped from her home at Virginia, Ill., on Tuesday, she telling her mother in a note that she had gone to the country for a brief visit. It was later learned that she had packed her personal effects in preparation for remaining away indefinitely, when news of the marriage leaked out. The groom has been running on the Jacksonville street railway since leaving White Hall last summer. The bride is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Charles Wilson of Virginia, and she is said to have been quite prominent in church and social life.

Richard Whalen, well known Franklin precinct resident, was among the visitors in the city yesterday.

Gas Engines For Every Job on the Farm.

Saves a Team on the Binder

Cushman Binder Engine

The Cushman 4 H. P. is the one Successful Binder Engine. Thousands are in use every harvest. Fits any binder. Engine drives sickle and all machinery. Since horses have only to pull machine, two horses will easily handle 8-ft. binder in heavy grain. In a wet harvest Cushman Engine saves the crop, as it keeps sickle going when bull wheel slips.

Very important—The weight of the engine on the rear of the binder, only 167 lbs., is balanced by the six cone water cooler on the front of the binder. This balancing, and the water cooling, to prevent overheating on all day runs, are necessary to successful work in a hot field.

After harvest Cushman engine does all other work. Very light weight and easy to move around, yet runs more steadily than most heavy engines, because of Throttle Governor and perfect balance. 4 H. P. weighs only 190 lbs.; when stripped for binder only 167 lbs. 8 H. P. only 320 lbs. Also 15 and 20 H. P. sizes.

Great Majestic Range Bargain Week

Special Demonstration and Bargain Sale of

Majestic Ranges

At Our Store— One Week Only

Feb. 21st to March 1st

To be truly Economical there should be a Majestic in your kitchen

Economy is not merely spending the least money—buying a range at too low a price is indeed false economy. The first cost is not the only cost—the little additional first cost of a Majestic is nothing compared with its economy of fuel, durability and satisfactory service.
There is only one best. The public has judged. The Majestic is recognized as the standard of all ranges. The construction, material, workmanship and beauty of this wonderful range is unequalled, and it embodies important features possessed by no other range.

Your Opportunity is here—
At our store—during Majestic Bargain Week.

TWO NEW AND IMPORTANT FEATURES

The Wonderful Unseen Riveting
Yes, its rivet-tight, just like the old Majestic, but the rivets clinch inside of nickeled parts, leaving nickel smooth as glass, and there are no big, bulky bolt-heads on the inside. And, remember, rivets hold tight; bolts with only one or two threads holding are bound to work loose and cause no end of trouble. The Majestic is smooth inside and outside—it's a striking beauty—more than skin deep.

Oh, Joy! Top needs no blacking!
A smooth, highly polished cooking top, burnished blue, not only adds to the beauty of the Majestic, but absolutely eliminates the work, dirt and worry of trying to keep the range looking nice—just an occasional thin coat of parafine retains its beautiful velvet blue color.

If you haven't a MAJESTIC, avail yourself of this opportunity to get acquainted with this wonderful range—know the inside of ranges.

HARRY OLIVER HOME

Harry Oliver, son of Mr. and Mrs. John Oliver, has received his honorable discharge from the army and is spending a few days with his parents and other relatives.

Mr. Oliver was attached to the light artillery and spent five months overseas returning home recently. He did not get to see active service but his command was ready to go to the front when the armistice was signed.

He is looking fine and says he thoroly enjoyed his experiences. He is enthusiastic about the French people and said the Americans got along fine with them. However, they soon learned to charge for everything and the American soldiers were separated from their pay pretty rapidly.

JOHN H. RITCHIE DEAD IN MINNEAPOLIS

Former Newspaper Man Passed Away in Northern City—Was Authority on Sporting Matters.

John H. Ritchie sporting editor of the Minneapolis Journal for the past fifteen years, and formerly in the newspaper business in Jacksonville and Waverly died at his home in Minneapolis Monday. According to the dispatch sent out from Minneapolis he had been ill for several months.

John Ritchie was the son of Mr. and Mrs. Fred B. Ritchie and his early life was spent in Waverly where his father owned and edited the Waverly Journal. Mr. Ritchie learned the newspaper game with his father who was a brilliant writer.

He then went to St. Louis where he worked on the St. Louis Republic and Post-Dispatch being associated with William Marion Reedy who at that time was working on the daily papers in that city.

When his father died he returned to Waverly and edited and published the Journal for some time. In 1898 he disposed of his interests there and came to Jacksonville where he started the publication of the Weekly Democrat in partnership with Warren Case.

Published Paper Here.

In 1899 J. I. McGready became a member of the firm and they decided to publish a daily morning paper. The paper was started in November 1899 and after a short time changed to an evening paper. It did not have enough financial backing, however, and soon suspended publticaion.

After leaving Jacksonville Mr. Ritchie went to Decatur where for a brief period he was in the advertising department of the Decatur Review. He then went to Rochester, N. Y., where he was in the news department of the Rochester Post-Express.

In 1904 he went to Minneapolis where he took charge of the sporting department of the Journal which position he held until the time of his death.

Was Versatile Writer.

John Ritchie was a versatile writer. He wrote everything and did it well. He specialized in theatricals and sports and was considered an authority on all sporting matters. During his younger days when bicycle racing was the rage all over the country he developed into quite a race rider and won considerable fame on the race courses in this part of the country.

He was a man strong in his likes and dislikes, always true to his friends. He weilded a vitriolic pen and was not afraid to call a spade a spade. He was popular with the newspaper fraternity thruout the country and his death removes one of the few men of the old newspaper school of two decades ago.

Mr. Ritchie was a first cousin of W. W. Holliday president of the Illinois Telephone Company. He also was a close personal friend of Mayor Rodgers and during the latter's campaign for assessor and treasurer in 1898 gave him strong support both in the primary and election.

D. A. VANWINKLE DIED IN SOUTH DAKOTA

Well Known Former Resident Passes Away—Was State's Attorney from 1904 to 1908.

Bert A. VanWinkle, former resident of Jacksonville, and State's Attorney of Morgan County from 1904 to 1908 died at the National Home for Disabled Volunteer Soldiers at Hot Springs, South Dakota, Tuesday. The message containing the news of his death was received by Mrs. C. L. Hankins, a cousin of the deceased.

Bert A. VanWinkle was the son of John and Elizabeth VanWinkle, and was born on a farm near Franklin about 44 years ago. His parents removed to Jacksonville when he was a young man. He was educated in the public schools of the city, afterward studied law and was admitted to the bar.

In 1904 he was elected state's attorney and served until 1908. At that time his condition had become such that he was compelled to go to California for his health. He spent some time in San Deigo, Calif., returning here a few years ago. Recently he went to the home in South Dakota.

He is survived by two brothers, Charles of Peoria, and Chester VanWinkle, who is now a prominent practicing attorney in San Deigo, Calif. His grandmother, Mrs. Mary Gibson, residing near Franklin, also survives, as also a number of aunts and uncles among them, Mrs. Julia Mansfield, of 408 West College street.

Mr. VanWinkle was a member of the Knights of Pythias and was a man whose cheerful disposition even in sickness endeared him to a large circle of friends.

The remains will be brought back to this county for burial and interment probably will be in Providence cemetery, near Franklin. The time will be announced later.

GOING OUT OF BUSINESS

Well I should say NOT. I am just getting started, and to prove it to you, I might state that I am putting in the latest shop equipment. Consisting of Battery Charging Outfit, Burning in Machine, Re-Boring Machine, Motor Stands, all the latest tools, besides the installation of another new electric Gasoline Pump for my service station. Also: I am adding daily to my competent force of up-to-date mechanics. Mr. Lewis Kelly is still with me, and holds the position of General Superintendent of my plant. On March the first I will have an assistant stock man, and one among the best, if not the best salesman in this part of the state.

My men have just finished unloading eight cars, and I want to insist that if you contemplate buying a car to have for the summer, that you place your order early, for the policy of the company is unchanged with reference to the purchasing of a car. The purchaser must place his order in advance before they will ship a car to me to be delivered to you. Come! Let us co-operate.

Respectfully,

C. N. PRIEST, the Ford Man

MISS MOLLIE BURNS GOES WEST

Miss Mollie Burns has gone to California for a stay of six months and possibly longer if she likes the country and is pleased generally. She will go first to Los Angeles and visit friends in that city and vicinity and see some other places too. Few persons ever left Jacksonville with a greater number of well wishes and those desiring the best of time for her.

NOTICE.

JEALOUSY CAUSES SHOOTING AFFRAY

Mrs. Mabel Austin Shoots and Probably Fatally Wounds Miss Eunice Wayman in White Hall Store—Injured Woman at Passavant Hospital.

Miss Eunice Wayman of White Hall is at Passavant hospital in a critical condition and Mrs. Mabel Austin is held in the Greene county jail at Carrollton, as the result of a shooting affray which took place in a store in White Hall Tuesday afternoon.

The Wayman woman was struck by two bullets. One penetrated the abdomen and the other entered the right shoulder and penetrated the lung. It is said that jealousy was the cause of the shooting.

The affair occurred in a general store in White Hall about 2 o'clock Tuesday afternoon. Mrs. Austin was in the store making some purchases when Miss Wayman came in. Mrs. Austin had a revolver in her pocket and drew it and fired two shot both taking effect.

After the shooting she left the store and walked down the street and met an officer. She is alleged to have said, "I have shot the Wayman girl and want you to put me in jail." She was placed under arrest and taken to Carrollton where she is held without bail.

Dr. Peak was summoned and after giving first aid to Miss Wayman brought her to this city on the afternoon Alton train arriving at 4:50 o'clock. She was taken to Passavant hospital and Dr. J. W. Hairgrove called.

Examination revealed the wounds as indicated. Dr. Hairgrove said last night that Miss Wayman's condition was critical and that chances of recovery are slight. He said that if she survived thru the night that an X-ray would be taken this morning to locate the bullet which entered the shoulder. He was of the opinion, however, that it would be impossible to remove it.

Miss Wayman is about 18 years of age. There seemed to be some reticence on the part of those in a position to know the details to talk of the affair. It is rumored, however, that the attentions of Mrs. Austin's husband to the Wayman girl is the cause that led up to the tragedy of Tuesday.

M. E. GILBERT BUYS STORE BUILDING

Purchases From Ex-Governor Yates Property He Has Long Occupied with Pharmacy.

M. E. Gilbert is now the owner of the building at the corner of West and West State street, which he has long occupied as the lessee from ex-Gov. Yates. Mr. Gilbert has been the propriteor of the pharmacy there for nearly twelve years. He purchased the store from Mrs. John Williamson. Prior to that time it had been occupied by the F. C. Coe china store, and at a still earlier date was the Deatherage & Austin drug store. The Gilbert Pharmacy can really trace its history back ot the long established Ayers drug store occupying the building space which is now a part of the Ayers National bank building. The Ayers store subsequently passed into the hands of Carter & Kuechler and then Mrs. Williamson became the owner before a change was made from the location on the west side of the square to the Yates building.

Mr. Gilbert studied pharmacy at Northwestern University and then held a position with Mr. France, owner of a drug store in Chicago. Later Mr. France was the owner of stores in different Illinois cities, and Mr. Gilbert in each instance went with him. Twelve years ago Mr. Gilbert came to Jacksonville, purchased the business which he has since operated in a very successful way. The location is excellent and as Mr. Gilbert conducts a thoroly reliable and up to date pharmacy, his clientage has increased from year to year.

Negotiations for the purchase of the building have been in progress for several months and were completed yesterday. It is understood the purchase price was $13,000. E. B. Wiswell was the real estate broker who made the sale.

SOLDIER DIED FROM DISEASE

Raymond Baxter's Name Added to List of Morgan County's Fallen Heroes.

S. J. Baxter of Woodson was notified Sunday of the death of his son, James Raymond Baxter, in France, from pneumonia. Letters of comparatively recent date from the young man indicated that he was at St. Aignon, France, and it is believed that he must have been ill at a hospital near that city, altho no details have yet been received from the war department. The deceased, who was a son of S. J. Baxter and Ida Baxter, was born at Woodson, Nov. 27, 1895. He attended the public schools of Woodson as a boy and later was a student at Jacksonville high school. After finishing the course there he was in the store of Colton & Baxter in Woodson and still later went to Detroit where he as employed by the Packard Motor Co. He was in the service of that company at the time the U. S. entered the war and because the company was engaged in government contracts he had the opportunity of exemption from army service. However, he preferred to take an active part in the conflict and waiving his exemption right, volunteered for service.

After a brief period of training in an eastern camp he left port for France May 26, and on June 4 landed in France. The young soldier was in Co. B of the 303rd engineers in the 78th division, and on European soil went thru several months of rigorous training before going into the war zone in the St. Mihiel sector. For more than two months he was in continuous service at the front, taking a part in the battle of Argonne Forest and other important engagements. He was in service there when the armistice was signed and brought an end to hostilities.

While a resident of Woodson Mr. Baxter became a member of the Presbyterian church and lived earnestly and well. He had a geniality of spirit which made for his popularity and his untimely death has brought the keenest sorrow not only to his parents and near relatives, but to a wide circle of friends as well. He leaves, in addition to his parents, his grandmother, Mrs. Margaret Baxter; and one sister, Mrs. Newton Wilson of Sinclair. Among the relatives are the following aunts: Mrs. Roberta Williamson and Mrs. Deaton, Kansas City; Mrs. Joyce Sooy, Mrs. Jennie Cowdin and Mrs. Mayme Coultas, this county. The relatives anxiously await further facts about the soldier's death.

SOME ADMIRAL DEWEY REMINISCENCES

Yesterday a gentleman said to the writer: Do you remember introducing a man to Admiral Dewey when he visited the city some twenty years ago? I was the man and served with him during the Civil War when he was lieutenant commander on the Agawam, a double ender boat, in 1864 in river service. We had double ender boats because the river didn't permit turning around.

Then Mayor Rodgers offered a story. When the admiral came home from Manila his admiring friends gave him a horse which he proceeded to deed over to his new wife which made a great deal of unfavorable comment. Mansfield Hobson, Fred Curtiss and myself, all Waverly people, were standing on the walk in front of the Catholic parsonage and the matter of the horse came up. The dissatisfaction of the people was mentioned. At that moment the admiral's carriage passed by and Mrs. Dewey looked so handsome and winning Mr. Hobson said he didn't blame the admiral for giving such a handsome woman anything he had.

Eugene Pelham had served with Gen. Hazen, Mrs. Dewey's first husband, and thought much of him and was glad to meet Mr. Dewey who was very gracious.

STOVE POLISH IS CAUSE OF FIRE ALARM

The explosion of a can of stove polish in a kitchen caused the fire department to be called to the residence of Virgil Edwards, 141 West Chambers street about noon Tuesday.

Mr. Edwards had just moved into the property and a can of stove polish which had been used in polishing the range, was by mistake left in the stove.

When a fire was started the heat caused the polish to explode. The explosion broke one of the doors of the range and it looked for a time as tho some damage would result. However the only damage was to the stove.

OPEN SEASON FOR WILD FOWL IN STATE

Federal Migratory Bird Treaty Act Permits Hunting Only Between Sept. 16 and Dec. 31, inclusive—Communication Covers Situation.

White Hall, Feb. 24.—L. D. Whiteside, secretary of the Greene County Sportsmen's League, announces that all state laws inconsistent with the Federal Migratory Bird Treaty Act are inoperative, and that hunting is permissible only between September 16th and December 31st of each year, both dates inclusive. The information has been sought by sportsmen in general over this section, and the subject is one of general interest among hunters. The situation is well covered in a communication from C. I. Christie, acting secretary, department of agriculture, Washington, dated February 15th, which is as follows :

"Hon. Henry T. Rainey has requested the department to advise you in regard to the recent action of the supreme court in the case involving the constitutionality of the Migratory Bird law of 1913.

"The case of the United States vs. Shauver, involving a prosecution under the Migratory Bird law of March 4th, 1913, was removed to the supreme court of the United States on the government's writ of error from a decision of the United States district court for the eastern district of Arkansas, in which it was held that that law as unconstitutional. The case was argued in the supreme court in the fall of 1915, and on February 28th, 1916, was restored to the docket by the court for reargument, and in October, 1916, subject to call for argument on agreement of counsel.

"Meanwhile the United States and Great Britain concluded a treaty for the protection of migratory birds in the United States and Canada and on July 3rd, 1918, the president approved the act of congress known as the Migratory Bird Treaty Act, which superseded the Migratory Bird Law of 1913 and which is now in full operation thruout the United States.

"After the passage of the Migratory Bird Treaty Act, the Shauver case presented merely a moot question, and on January 5th the attorney general moved the court to dismiss the case, the motion being granted. There was no occasion for, and there was not a decision of the court, in the matter.

"The act of congress known as the Migratory Bird Treaty Act, approved July 3rd, 1918, which gave effect to the treaty between the United States and Great Britain concluded August 16th, 1916, for the protection of migratory birds, is now in full force and effect, and it is unnecessary for congress to enact other legislation to give effect to the treaty. This act renders inoperative all state laws not consistent therewith. The federal open season for wild fowl in Illinois is from September 16th to December 31st, both days inclusive, and it is unlawful to hunt or capture wild fowl in Illinois at any other time."

Twelve boxes to be used as collection boxes in connection with the city mail delivery arrived this week, and will be placed just as soon as the weather will permit. This work was stopped two years ago by the war, after some of the posts had been placed..

The Morning Call, the typewritten sheet that served war news all during America's participation in the war in an accurate and prompt manner, has been converted into a municipal bulletin, and takes the view that the mayoralty race will be between Dr. F. N. McLaren and Hal W. Galhuly. McLaren's attitude has touched every phase from refusal to final decision to make the race during the past ten days. Just why he should be uncertain of support when it is practically the unanimous opinion that he would make an ideal mayor, is not stated. The labor vote seems to be the deciding factor, and Galhuly has the best of the situation there unless the effort to induce the labor element to father McLaren's candidacy gains sufficient headway to insure victory. Both candiates appeal to the younger class, and both are of the progressive type.

A bill introduced in congress by Congressman Rainey provides the sum of $5,000 for the purchase of a site for a postoffice building at White Hall, and it has since been learned that the appropriation has been passed, in suring a federal building for this city. Sites under consideration so far are the Winn machine shop at the corner of Sherman and Carrollton streets, and the Doyle Marble Works at the corner of Franklin and Main streets. The site must be 100x125 feet. The site will be purchased and put in shape for construction work before the building appropriation will be made, and this item will be not less than $40,000, giving White Hall a federal building costing in the neighborhood of $50,000 to accommodate the central accounting postoffice as well as the business of the local office and weather forecast distributing station.

L. Lowenstein accompanied a delegation to Springfield last week on business with the state highway commission with reference to the new hard roads thru this section. In the course of his remarks to the commission he complimented Jacksonville and Beardstown for their great interest in securing the east and west highway from Shelbyville that will probably be given the south route through Jacksonville.

E. O. Turner of Pattonsburg, Mo., was in town this week. He is president and general manager of a telephone company that operates three exchanges. He was formerly local manger of the Illinois Telephone Co. He does not seem to be heartily in favor of government control.

FROM COUNTY AGENT'S OFFICE

How About That Seed Corn?—Are you sure yours will all grow? This has been a good seed year, we admit, but you cannot afford to plant your corn without a pretty thorough ear test of your seed. Don't take our word alone. Read what Billy Riegel and Harry Sconce say about it:

"In reply to your letter of Jan. 30 we have been storing our seed corn in a furnace heated basement. Last year we had some stored also in the barn. The basement corn tested 90 per cent and that in the barn 18 per cent. Both were selected under similar conditions. Two years ago a composite sample showed about 60 per cent germination. This was stored where it drew dampness. By the ear test we are able to get plenty of good seed corn for our crop. Ear testing will probably not be absolutely necessary this year but we shall test ours because we don't plant everything that germinates, but select the ears that germinate strong—e. g., if we take six kearnels from an ear and it has five strong and one weak sprout, we discard it and chose only the ears that give six strong shoots." W. E. Riegel, McHarry Farm, Tolono, Ill.

"Answering yours of the 30th will give you a little about the germination of our seed corn. The corn selected from the standing stalk before frost, germinated 99.2 per cent. The same corn from the same field selected at husking time, at the elevator germinated 91.4 per cent. The corn from the crib is the same corn after the zero weather of early December germinated 64 per cent. The corn from the same crib but selected in February after all of the heavy 23 below zero weather, germinated but 10.0 per cent. H. J. Sconce, Sidell, Ill.

Spring Pig Crop.

Great danger of this spring's pig crop becoming infested if kept in old contaminated lots and shelters. "During the past year a large number of farms thruout the state have become infected with hog cholera, swine plague, hermorrhagic septicemia, necrobacillosis, pneumonia, and other diseases, due to the recent epidemic that has been termed mixrd infection among swine.

"To protect the pigs that will be farrowed on these premises this year it will be necessary to observe extraordinary sanitary precautions for in all diseases the most simple and effective method to adopt is prevention. The germs of disease must be destroyed in order to prevent the ailment. Clean, light, well-ventilated sleeping quarters should be provided.

Frequent and thorough cleaning and disinfection of all pens, troughs, feeding floors, sheds, hog houses and hog lots, rotation of pactures, plowing and cultivation of all hog lots and pastures, liberal use of quick lime on lots that cannot be plowed, are all essential as preventive measures.

Sows and litters should not be allowed to run and feed on ground where diseased animals have been kept, as disease garms are thrown off by the animals thru the excretions and lie in the soil, in the litter of stables and upon floors, walls, in crevices, and remain there and maintain their virulency for an indefinite period unless destroyed by thorough disinfection.

Direct rays of the sun are inimical to many forms of bacteria, either destroying them entirely or lessening their virulency.

To Protect the Quality, Welworth Blouses $2.50

Women throughout America have learned to expect a certain definite unvarying standard of quality in Welworth Blouses. These expectations never have nor never will be disappointed. To maintain that standard an advance, comparatively slight, now becomes imperative. And it might be remarked that this is the first change ever made in the price of these far-famed and deservedly-popular Blouses.

When it is ecalled that the prices of everything that enters into the construction of Blouses has advanced to such dizzy heights, keeping down the price of the Welworth for so long a time seems an achievement nothing short of remarkable. This has been due in part to greatly growing volume and greater economies; in part to provident, year-in-advance material purchases. Further advances however, have made this increase inevitable.

In the future as in the past the Welworth will always represent the very maximum of value at the price, and the unique Welworth service assures us that we will always be able to show the same new styles on the same day as they first appear in the Nation's recognized Style Centers.

This is the only store in this city where Welworth Blouses can be sold.

Our intimate co-operation with the Nation's largest Blouse makers insures better blouse values always.

DELEGATES TAKE UP MEXICAN PROBLEMS

PARIS, Feb. 24.—That Mexican problems already have been the subject of formal discussions between the delegates of the peace conference and that Great Britain and France have indicated willingness to leave to the United States adjustments of all Mexican questions in which their nations are interested is revealed by the announcement in Paris newspapers of the formation of an international committee of bankers to protect holders of Mexican securities.
Mexico is not represented at the conference, but the presence in Paris of Alburto J. Pani, as a representative of President Carranza, opens the way for direct negotiations should they be desired.

IN MISERY FOR YEARS

Mrs. Courtney Tells How She was Cured by Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound

Oskaloosa, Iowa.—"For years I was simply in misery from a weakness and awful pain — and nothing seemed to do me any good. A friend advised me to take Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound. I did so and got relief right away. I can certainly recommend this valuable medicine to other women who suffer, for it has done such good work for me and I know it will help others if they will give it a fair trial."—Mrs. Lizzie Courtney, 108 8th Ave., West, Oskaloosa, Iowa.

Why will women drag along from day to day, year in and year out, suffering such misery as did Mrs. Courtney, when such letters as this are continually being published. Every woman who suffers from displacements, irregularities, inflammation, ulceration, backache, nervousness, or who is passing through the change of life should give the famous root and herb remedy, Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound, a trial. For special advice write Lydia E. Pinkham Medicine Co., Lynn, Mass. The result of its long experience is at your service.

TRIP TO SPRINGS FAILED TO HELP

Mrs. Richards Spent $300 in Vain Search for Health—Is Relieved Through Taking Tanlac.

"I actually spent three hundred dollars for medicines of different kinds, but nothing seemed to help me till I began using Tanlac," said Mrs. A. M. Richards, of 303 Thirteenth street, Denver, Colo.
"Three years ago," she continued, "I began to suffer from rheumatism and stomach trouble, and while the rheumatism affected me all over I suffered mostly in my hands and feet. Medicines failed to help me and I went to Idaho Springs for treatment, but came back no better. For two years I couldn't walk and at times I couldn't use my arms at all. My stomach, too, was in a dreadful condition and I was weak, nervous and dizzy.
"Tanlac has simply brought me wonderful results. Before taking it I weighed only one hundred pounds and I now weigh all of a hundred and twenty. I can walk all over town, going anywhere I want, look after my house without any trouble and just feel fine. That dizziness is gone, too, and I am in better condition now than I have been in three years."
Tanlac is sold in Jacksonville by Coover & Shreve.—Adv.

DAUGHTER ALWAYS TIRED

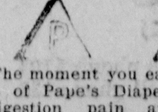

Mother Says Vinol Built Her Up and Completely Restored Her Health

Long Island City, N. Y.—"My daughter is a milliner and she got into a rundown condition, pale and had no appetite. After other medicines failed to help her, Vinol gave her a good appetite, built up and completely restored her health."—Mrs. H. Ott.
The reason Vinol was so successful in this case is because it contains beef and cod liver peptones, iron and manganese peptonates and glycerophosphates, the very elements needed to build up a weakened, rundown system, and create strength. For sale by all druggists.
P. S.: For rough scaly skin try our Saxol salve. Money back if it fails.—Adv.

ADVANCE IN CALL LOANS AFFECT STOCKS

NEW WYORK, Feb. 25.—Trading in stocks today was affected by yesterday's unexpected advance in call loans to maximum quotations of the past two years. Pools curtailed their activities in the speculative issues and the trend was uncertain.
The flurry in money also served to restrain outside interest or buying. Call money ruled at six per cent the rate falling a fraction towards the close. Firmer tendencies prevailed for time money.
The one section of the stock list which seemed to defy monetary consideration was that comprising the motors and allied shares.
Gains of two, almost six points were scored by General Motors, Kelly-Springfield Tire and Studebaker, the latter dominating the entire market towards the close. Oils, prominent equipments including U. S. Steel and Baldwin Locomotive reacted one to two points, also leaders and utilities, while tobaccos yielded slightly on realizing and sugars were favorably influence d by free buying.
Rails and shipping lagged throughout, marines makin an abrupt decilen in the finnal hour. Dullness ruled in the bond market, Liberty issues manifesting slight irregularity.

INCREASED WHEAT ACREAGE ADVANCES CO

CHICAGO, Feb. 25.—Corn advanced sharply today helped by reports that much land usually devoted to corn would e planted with spring wheat. The market closed unsettled, — to 2⅜ net hugher, May $1.25⅞ to $1.26 and July $1.21½ to $1.21⅝. Oats finished unchanged to ⅝c higher, and provisions varying from 30c decline to a raise of 7c.
It was said advances from all partsc of the corn belt indicated that the acreage of spring wheat would be largely increased by displacing feed grain. A big supply of mogs was reported as still back on the farms and there were signs of increased confidence that the exiseing price minimum would remain in force during March.
Oats borrowed strength from corn.
Free selling by packers together with weakness in the hog market made provisions average lower.

Ruddy Cheeks—Sparkling Eyes —Most Women Can Have

Says Dr. Edwards, a Well-Known Ohio Physician

Dr. F. M. Edwards for 17 years treated scores of women for liver and bowel ailments. During these years he gave to his patients a prescription made of a few well-known vegetable ingredients mixed with olive oil, naming them Dr. Edwards' Olive Tablets. You will know them by their olive color.

These tablets are wonder-workers on the liver and bowels, which cause a normal action, carrying off the waste and poisonous matter in one's system.

If you have a pale face, sallow look, dull eyes, pimples, coated tongue, headaches, a listless, no-good feeling, all out of sorts, inactive bowels, you take one of Dr. Edwards' Olive Tablets nightly for a time and note the pleasing results.

Thousands of women as well as men take Dr. Edward's Olive Tablets—the successful substitute for calomel—now and then just to keep in the pink of condition. 10c and 25c per box. All druggists.

ILLINOIS WOMAN'S COLLEGE

Dr. Eva. M. Blake, of Philadelphia, is giving her services during the winter to the National Board of the Young Women's Association. Her work is in line with the national emphasis upon conservation of physical resources.

She will give five lectures on Social Relationships, the first two of which will be given on Tuesday and Wednesday evenings at the Evening Chapel at about 6:30 o'clock. Dr. Blake will also address the morning Chapel at 10:00 o'clock on Wednesday and Friday morning. The women of Jacksonville are invited to hear Dr. Blake.

The general purpose of this forward movement under the auspices of the Young Women's Christian Association is explained in their bulletin entitled: "The College Woman and Social Relationships."

"The Bureau of Social Education of the Y. M. C. A. offers to colleges and normal schools short courses of Social Morality Lectures by well qualified women physicians.

"The Great war is testing and straining many beliefs which had been held in comfortable assurance for so long that they had crystalized into customs and institutions which had come to be regarded as permanent and safe from danger of subversion.

"Certain it is, that for the young woman of today, clear sightedness and wisdom are absolutely essential—as they never have been before.

Dr. Blake made a very favorable impression by her Tuesday morning address. The explanation of the work of the Blue Triangle was given as follows: The two sides of the triangle stand for the intellectual and physical development of the individual. The greater the development of these two equally, the greater the possibility of the base of the triangle, or spiritual development.

The reason why the "W" has been encircled is to distinguish from that of the Young Men's Christian Association. As so many people are color blind, they do not distinguish between the red and the blue triangles and at a distance the "W" looks like an "M."

Diamond Jewelry

This store has long borne the distinction of being diamond headquarters for this section of Illinois — carry at all times a large line of loose and mounted stones

Since 1476, when de Berghem discovered the art of cutting and polishing diamonds to produce their present-day brilliance, the diamond has stood out the most desired — most worshipped — of all precious stones.

Everyone should own a diamond; as a matter of investment with men; and to satisfy that natural love for beautiful personal adornments with women—the diamond is a most prized possession.

From our collection of loose stones you may choose one of the particular size that suits your fancy and we will mount it in any piece of jewelry you may select.

This work is done in our own workroom, by competent craftsmen, and without delay. All orders executed the day received.

If interested in the purchase of a diamond, we shall be pleased to have you call and inspect our splendid values.
